

QUIZ

1. Which of the following is not among modern educational Technologies?

- A) Overhead projection
- B) Telegram
- C) Internet

2. What is not one of the general features of modern educational Technologies?

- A) They address to the ear
- B) They are mobile
- C) They are difficult to use

3. How can telephone be used in education?

- When specialist cannot get to the school, he can be reached by telephone and information needed can be obtained this way.

4. What instruments enrich the teaching environment?

- A) Overhead projection
- B) DVD players
- C) All above

5. Which is considered obsolete (old) technology below?

- A) Computers
- B) Intelligent boards
- C) Records

6. Which one of the following is open to development?

- A) DVDs
- B) Records
- C) Telegrams

7. Modern educational Technologies have some restrictions. Can you complete the definition below?

“There is one way”

- A) quality
- B) communication
- C) problem

8. Two of the following are benefits of modern educational Technologies. Please choose them.

- A) They are immobile
- B) They are easy to use
- C) They fit group work.

9. Which is not audio – visual device?

- A) DVD
- B) RECORD
- C) VIDEO

10. Where is a transparent instrument not used?

- A) Overhead projection and film slide
- B) Slide machine
- C) Elmo

11. Where is transparent acetate used?

- A) Elmo
- B) Overhead projection and film slide
- C) Opaque projection

12. How do modern technologies harm students?

- A) They motivate students better
- B) They may diminish students' thinking capacity
- C) They require training before using them.

13. Which of the following is the most developed?

- A) Slide and film slides
- B) Elmos
- C) Data projections

14. Which is not a feature of the intelligent board?

- A) You can write on it electronically.
- B) You clean the board with an eraser.
- C) You can print out the writings on the board.

15. What is the main feature of modern educational Technologies?

- A) They address to the eye and ear.
- B) They are used only for primary school students.
- C) They are used for limited subjects.