

EDUCAnet

* private secondary school in Pardubice

- established in 1992 as the first private secondary school in our region
- provides specialized education in full-time study and extra-mural study

Two branches:

- economics
- information technologies

Economics and business studies

- economics, economics of foreign trade
- two foreign languages – English + German or Russian
- accounting, management, marketing, law

Employment:

- run own business
- work in marketing, planning or personal department

Information technologies

- network architecture, database
- web pages, programming, application software
- graphics
- practical exercise (how to create www sites using HTML, CSS and Javascript)

Employment:

- webmasters
- network and database specialists
- programmers etc.

we ...

- emphasize pleasant family environment
- try to keep a close contact with students' parents

- support students' development by individual study plans
- encourage our sportsmen
- pay attention to students with special educational needs

- students of first grade are provided with laptops
- communication is highly stressed
- the right to express students' own opinion is respected
- cooperation is encouraged
- theory is put into practise

- maximum number of students in 1 class – 28
- some subjects (e.g. languages, computer technology) are taught in smaller groups
- our teachers are trained further language laboratory, multimedia laboratory,

natural sciences laboratory

MOODLE = e-learning software

- students' opportunity to learn at home, to have access to study materials
- enables students to meet teacher in cyperspace
- time for studying is not limited to a school timetable
- students can easily communicate among themselves
- all information in one place

New multimedia laboratory

Multimedia formation

Main purpose:

- improve conditions for a better and wider use of ICT in teaching

Podcasts = audio or video teaching/educational materials

- opportunity for students to become involved in their own education
- individualization of education
- incorporation of modern technologies into educational process
- development of teachers' competences

Program GRUNDTVIG

- aimed at teaching adults = Learning in Later Life
- partner countries: Czech Republic, France, Spain, Germany, Poland, Finland
- our students teaching seniors for two years

Project E-SENIORS

Main targets:

- make information technologies accessible to senior citizens
- extensive computer knowledge for this age group
- connection between young generation and seniors in order to overcome barriers of generation gap

E-SENIOR in Paris

Who are we?

- We are 15 years old students from Finland
- We spend our spare time hanging out and partying with our friends.
- Our common hobbies are biking and riding a motorcycle, Joel also photographs and Aleksi cycles other school activities:

adaptation course

Sports days

skiing course

Hockeyball against drugs

Final bell

Graduation Ball

School leaving exams, oral examination

Closing ceremony - school graduates

