

Nature and its protection Czech Republic

EDUCAnet Pardubice

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Three climate areas

1. Cool area: mountains

Žďárské
vrchy

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Jeseníky

EDUCAnet Pardubice

EDUCAnet Pardubice

2. Mildly warm areas: highlands – hill country (most of our territory)

EDUCAnet Pardubice

EDUCAnet Pardubice

3. Warm areas: lowlands

Polabí

EDUCAnet Pardubice

EDUCAnet Pardubice

The main purpose of nature protection is its preservation and recovery.

Nature protection is mentioned in our Constitution and Charter of Fundamental Rights.

Protection of species is aimed at species in a different stage of extinction.

We distinguish:

- ✓ critically endangered species
- ✓ heavily endangered species
- ✓ endangered species

EDUCAnet Pardubice

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Examples of critically and heavily endangered species

Flex

Thyme

Iris

Viper

EDUCAnet Pardubice

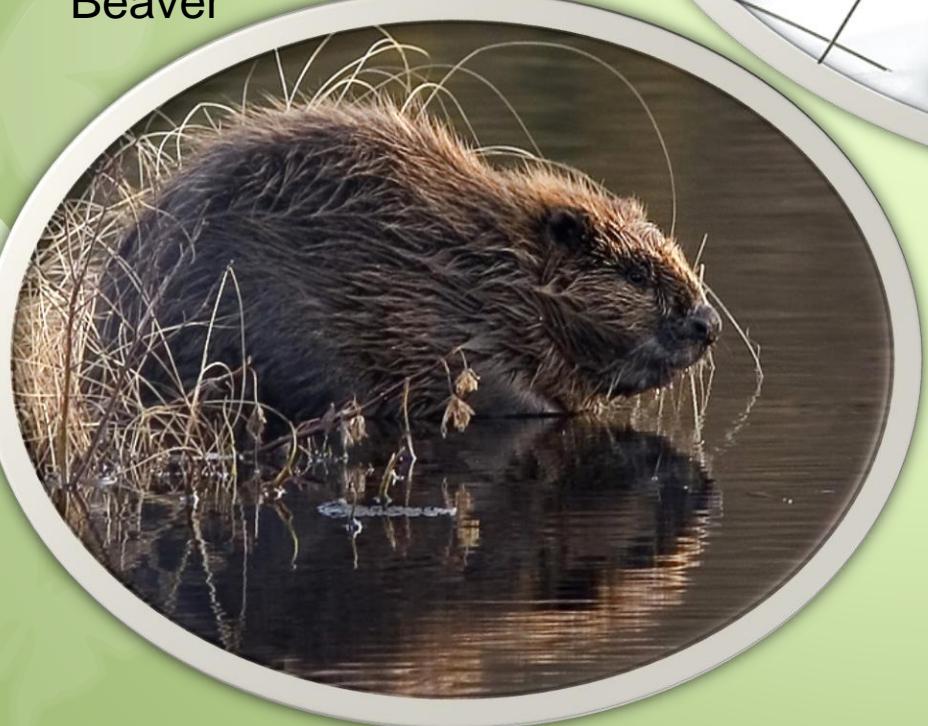

A circular photograph of a wolf standing in a forest. The wolf has a thick coat of grey and white fur. It is looking slightly to its left. The background consists of dark, leafless branches and some green foliage in the distance.

Wolf

Sea eagl

Beaver

Lynx

Otter

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Institution dealing with nature protection

- Ministry of Environment
- State Fund for Environment
- Czech Inspection of Environment
- District Offices
- Municipalities
- others...

Non-governmental organizations or movements

- Czech Association of Nature Protectors
- Brontosaurus
- Greenpeace
- Rainbow
- Children of the Earth

Sanctuaries = protected areas

- ✓ conserving species richness and valuable ecosystems
- ✓ allowing study of ecological regularities
- ✓ contributing to a positive relationship with nature

National parks

= extensive areas

which are very little affected by human

4 national parks in the Czech Republic

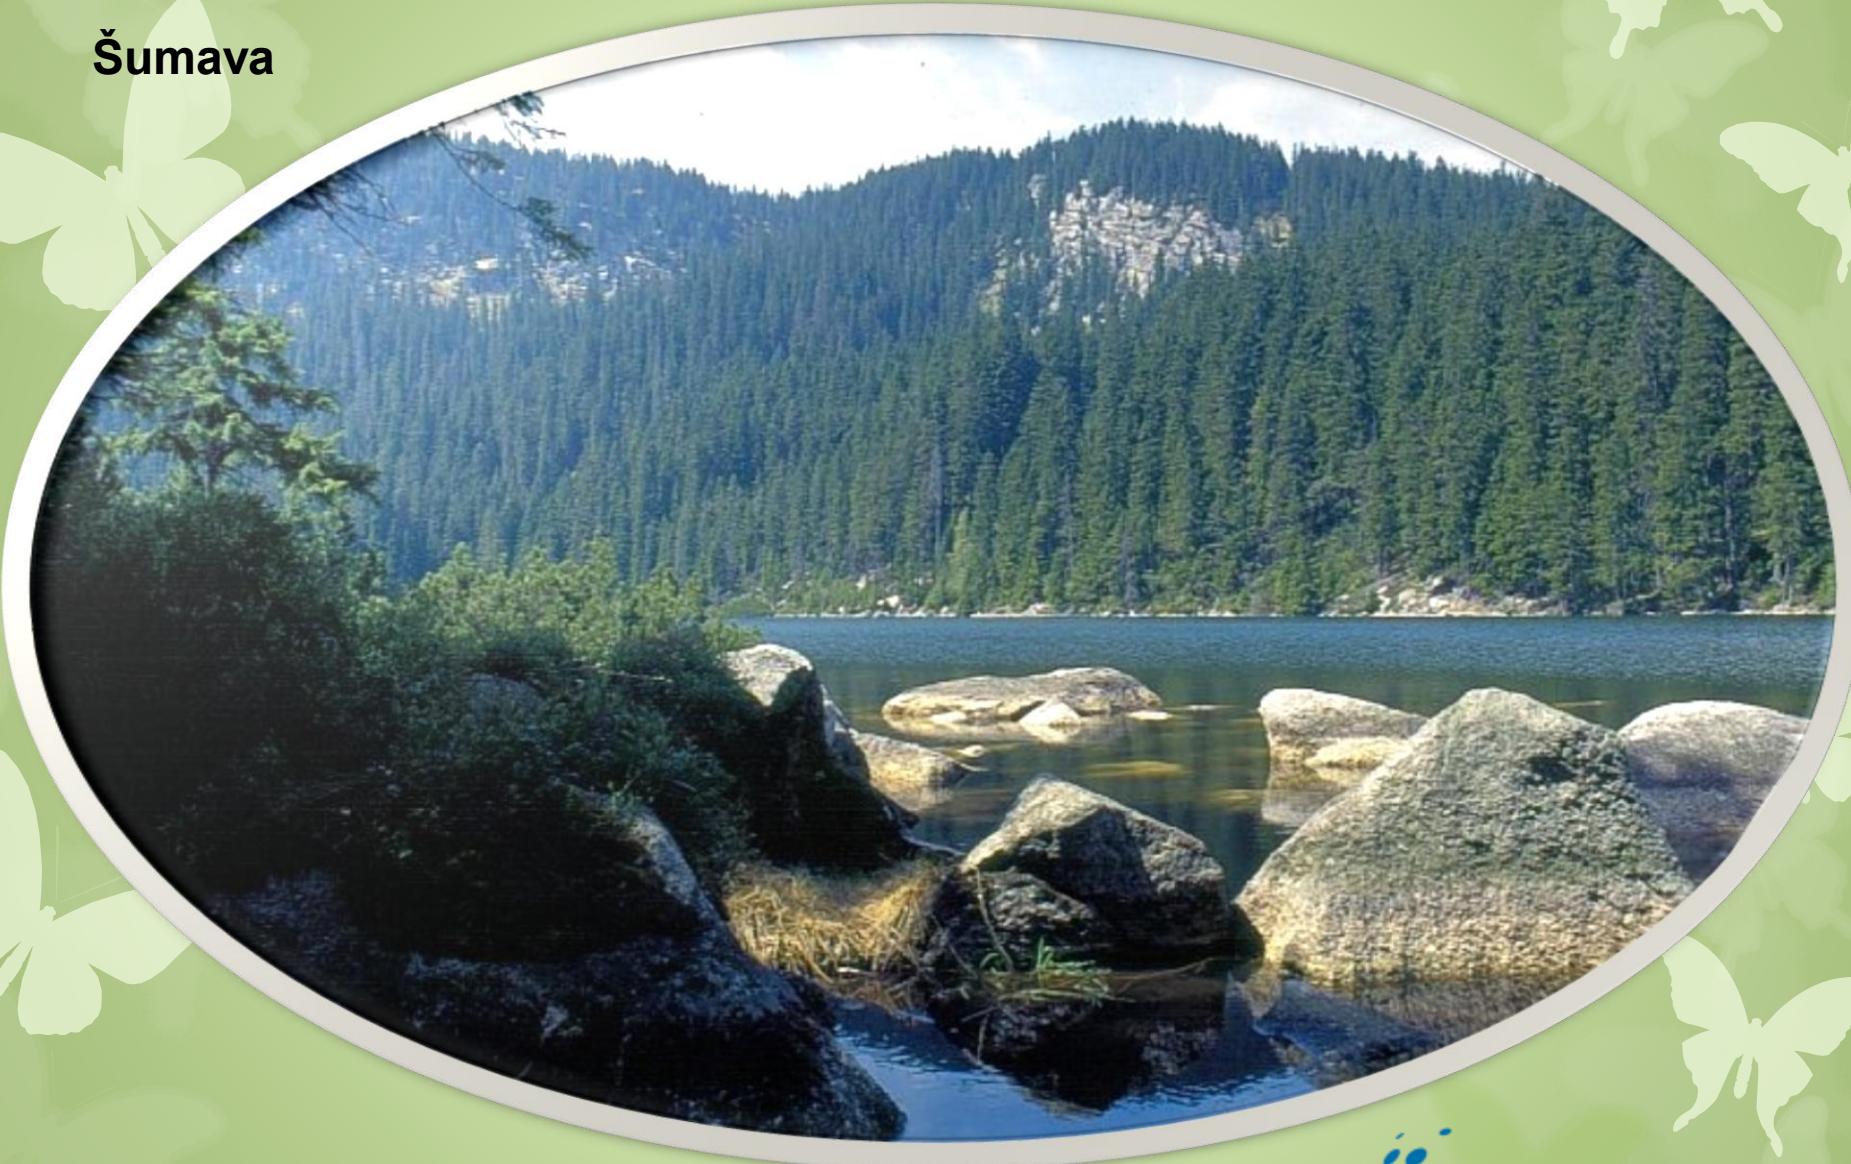

Krkonoše

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Šumava

EDUCAnet Pardubice

České Švýcarsko

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Podyjí

EDUCAnet Pardubice

Come and explore our country yourselves!!!!....

EDUCAnet Pardubice