

Pardubice

The city of sport, culture and history.

Pardubice as our seniors see it.

Pardubice - a magnificent place to visit.

The Old Town, the historical center of Pardubice, became an urban historic reservation site in the 1960's.

There are plenty of possibilities how to spend your free time.

For those who are interested in history,
The Chateau.

On the way from the castle,
you can enjoy an old, quiet part of the city

with its picturesque streets,

places to rest,

places to shop,

late Gothic)

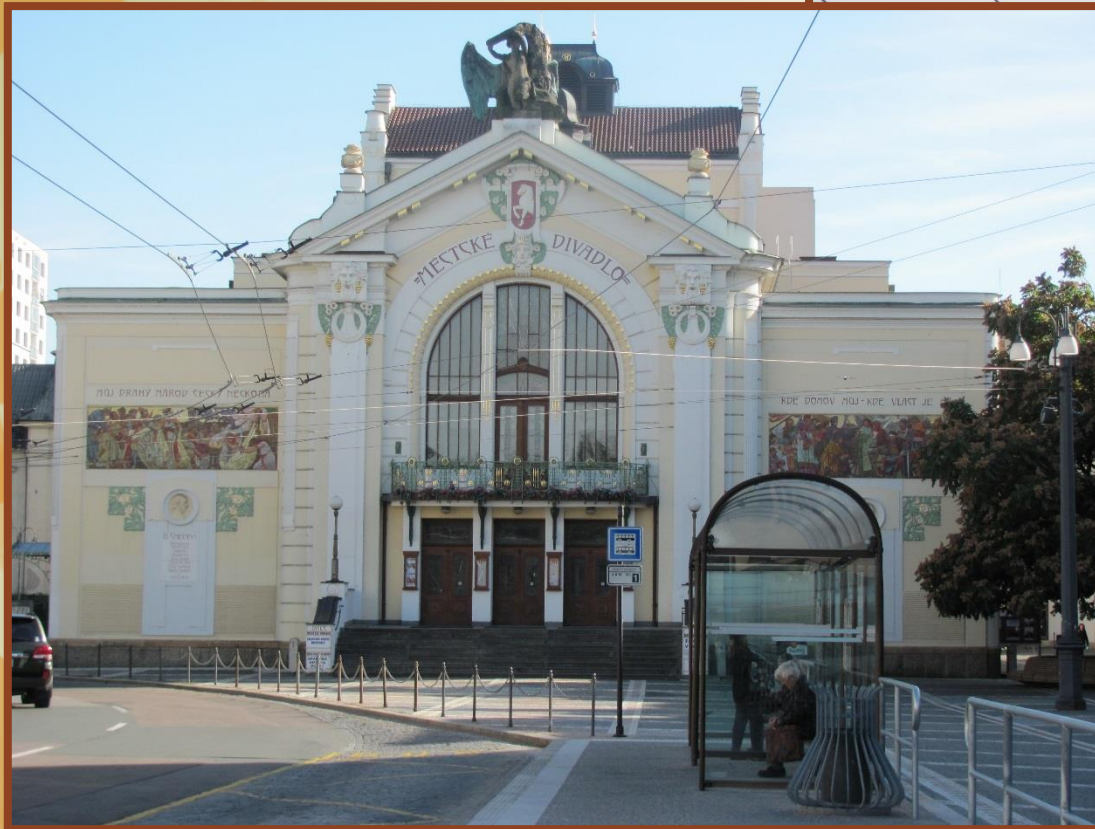

The photograph shows a large, multi-tiered stone memorial in Pardubice, Czech Republic. At the top center is a bust of a soldier wearing a helmet. Below the bust is a central stone pillar with the inscription '1914-1918.' and a circular wreath at its base. The memorial is flanked by two large stone plaques, each containing a list of names of fallen citizens. The top of the monument is inscribed with 'MĚSTO PARDUBICE SVÝM OBČANŮM' and 'PADLÝM ZA VLAST VE SVĚTOVÉ VÁLCE'. The background is a stone wall.

Monument World War II

The old part remained unchanged as we remember it.

Marian Plague Column (17th century) and the neo-renaissance Town Hall (19th century)

Pernštýnské Square

The Green Gate

Cafés, restaurants, bars and pubs,

modern buildings - banks, shopping malls,

schools and playgrounds,

block
of flats,

green areas.

Seniors and even youngsters
adore old historical cars and motorcycles.

In free time, it's great to take a ride
and explore the river banks,

or to enjoy the beauty of the nature.

Czech seniors' hobby – gardening,

„balcony gardening“...

...or strolling in the parks.

That is the place where we live
and that we LOVE.

Grab a car or a motorbike
and come to Pardubice!
