The Old Town, the historical center of Pardubice, became an urban historic reservation site in the 1960's.

The old part
remained
unchanged as we remember it.

Pernštýnské Square

Memorial plaque – World War I

The old part
remained
unchanged as we
remember it.

Three women are standing in the center of the room. One woman in a red turtleneck is handing a white folder to a woman in a grey sweater. A third woman in a striped shirt is standing between them, looking at the folder. They are all smiling and appear to be in a celebratory or collaborative mood.
